Training on

C O R E

common operational recovery essentials

The five day Common Operational Recovery Essentials (CORE) training is the outcome of a collaborative effort to develop a basic technical understanding and build a common language on Humanitarian Work, Disaster Risk Reduction and Capacity Building. It also acts as a foundation for capacity building activities and an introduction to the technical IASC clusters.

Aim of the Training

The CORE training is an accredited basic humanitarian technical training course that aims to provides fundamental skills and knowledge on humanitarian work to individuals and organisations.

Course Objectives

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Gain a common understanding of key technical topics that would prepare them for disaster response
- Appreciate the background, evolution and nature of humanitarian work
- Understand the role of the Disaster Cycle in humanitarian and risk reduction work
- State key pointers for assessments, monitoring and evaluation in humanitarian work
- Understand and apply humanitarian response standards
- Understand the different roles of coordination bodies and other humanitarian stakeholders

CORE

- Understand key issues in cultural, political and organizational environment of relief assistance
- Explain the essential concepts of disaster risk reduction

Course Outline

The 5-day CORE training covers:

- Assessment and Disaster Cycle - Why, when and standards for Assessment, Concepts of Disaster Management
- Humanitarian Principles, Standards and Code of Conduct
- Disaster Coordination - Cluster Approach and other coordination mechanisms
- Monitoring and Evaluation - M&E of humanitarian emergencies, indicators and tools, good practices
- Disaster Risk Reduction - Mainstreaming DRR with Development
- Programme Management - Log-frame, Project Cycle, principles of programme management in emergencies
- Information Management - Information and Communication Technology in Disaster Risk Reduction
- Water, Sanitation and Hygiene (WASH) - Basics and Essentials of WASH, Hygiene Improvement Framework
- Shelter and Settlement - Emergency Shelter Options, Sheltering as an approach, Displacement and Transitional Settlement Planning
- Early Recovery and Livelihoods - Sustainable Livelihood Approaches
- Supply Chain Management - Relief Logistics, essentials of managing and distributing relief supplies
- Scenario Exercises and Group Work Presentations through a progressive simulation

CORE

Expected Participants

This course is open to all humanitarian, development and government stakeholders who wish to gain a sound introduction and common understanding on Humanitarian Work, Disaster Risk Reduction and Capacity Building.

RedR India
"Samrudhi", Bungalow No.1, A Wing, AJ Classics Condominium, Survey No.2/3A, Hingne, Karve Nagar, Pune 411052, Maharashtra, India
Phone: +91-20-25474430, +91-20-32912532
You can also write to us at: info@redrindia.org

*Photo Credit: RedR India/ Benchmark Consulting

Dates & Venue

2nd to 6th October, 2012
Kathmandu, Nepal

Course Fees

- Residential rate*- USD 650
- Non-Residential rate - USD 375

How to Apply?

Please fill out the attached Registration Form and send it to training@redrindia.org. On confirmation of availability of seat please forward your course fee to RedR India. For more details on course fee please refer the application form.

For more information about the training and/or RedR India, please visit: www.redr.org.in

Includes tuition, food and accommodation.
*Includes only tuition , lunch and refreshments during training.