Storms caused the most economic damage — this was also the year of Hurricane Katrina.

Earthquakes caused the most economic damage — this was also the year of the Sichuan earthquake in China.

Drought affected most people — this was also the year of major drought in India and China.

Floods affected most people — this was also the year of major flooding in south and central parts of China.

Earthquakes killed the most people — this was also the year of the Indian Ocean earthquake and tsunami.

Storms killed the most people — this was also the year of Cyclone NARGIS.

Earthquakes killed the most people — this was also the year of the Haiti earthquake.

Storms caused the most economic damage — this was also the year of Hurricane Katrina.

Earthquakes caused the most economic damage — this was also the year of the Great East Japan Earthquake.