More than 50% of humanity
lives in towns and cities - a figure projected to grow to two thirds in little over a generation

> Save the date to share, learn and discuss the future of our cities. The World Urban Forum is the largest and most important United Nations meeting on cities. Thousands of people drawn from the public and private sectors, academia, civil society and the media will meet in Italy in 2012.

Equity, economy and ecology of cities will be the focus of the Forum. Urban job creation, livable cities and quality of life, culture, urban planning, the environment, urban mobility and energy will be the main topics as we reflect on the prosperity of cities.
