What are the preparedness priorities in terms of disaster management capacities, coordination, risk assessment information systems and early warning that will help UN agencies and local authorities to strengthen their current emergency preparedness activities?

What are the tools and mechanisms related to disaster management capacities, policies, risk assessment and information that will help build an effective partnership at local, regional and global level?

What are the voluntarism and participation mechanisms that UN agencies and national authorities should promote and implement in order to strengthen community response capacity?