Org .Setting And Reporting

Created in December 1999, the United Nations Office for Disaster Risk Reduction and Secretariat of the International Strategy for Disaster Reduction (UNISDR) is the designated focal point in the United Nations system for the coordination of disaster reduction and to ensure synergies among the disaster reduction activities of the United Nations and regional organizations and activities in socio-economic and humanitarian fields. Led by the United Nations Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Disaster Risk Reduction, UNISDR has around 100 staff located in its HQ in Geneva, Switzerland, and 5 regional offices and other field presences. Specifically, UNISDR coordinates international efforts in disaster risk reduction and guides, monitors and reports on the progress of the implementation of the Hyogo Framework for Action; campaigns to create global awareness of disaster risk reduction benefits and empower people to reduce their vulnerability to hazards; advocates for greater investments in disaster risk reduction to protect people's lives and assets, for increased and informed participation of men and women in reducing disaster risk; and informs and connects people by providing practical services and tools such as Prevention Web, publications on good practices, and by leading the preparation of the Global Assessment Report on Disaster Risk Reduction and the organization of the Global Platform for Disaster Risk Reduction. The focus of this job is on programme monitoring and evaluation, implementation, operations and other activities of UNISDR. The position reports to the Director of UNISDR.

Responsibilities

Formulate and implement the UNISDR work programme of the Regional Office in line with the strategic framework, by determining priorities, and allocating resources for the completion of outputs and their timely delivery, in cooperation and co-ordination with UNISDR Headquarters and other divisions and offices. Oversee the programmatic/administrative tasks necessary for the functioning of the regional office, including preparation of work plans and budgets, staff recruitment, evaluation of staff performance (PAS), monitoring of regional programmes, raising funds and resources for the Office of UNISDR and reporting on budget/programme performance in the context of results-based management. Ensure that the outputs produced by teams under his/her supervision meet high-quality standards; that reports are clear, objective and based on comprehensive data; and that they comply with relevant organizational mandates. Identify, build and enhance strategic partnerships for national, sub regional and regional cooperation with Governments, the private sector and civil society at large to mobilize support for sound and coherent action related to disaster risk reduction, and to ensure meaningful involvement and participation of those stakeholders in the development and implementation of effective disaster risk reduction policies, frameworks and programmes. Contribute to the UNISDR initiatives to coordinate implementation of UN Plan of Action on Disaster Risk Reduction for Resilience. Strengthen UN Coherence on disaster risk reduction in the region and ensure integration of risk reduction policies and programs through cooperation with the Resident Coordinators system and UN Country teams' mechanisms. Communicate, advocate, and secure support for the integration of disaster risk reduction in sustainable development in the region. Represent the Director and SRSG in all aspects of UNISDR's co-operation with the Governments, regional bodies, IGOs, NGOs, private sector and civil society at the regional level on disaster risk reduction. Provide programmatic/substantive expertise on an issue, or hold programmatic/substantive and organizational discussions with representatives of other institutions. Encourage cooperation and facilitate intergovernmental consultation and negotiation. As a member of the UNISDR Senior Leadership Group, participate in setting the strategic direction, planning and monitoring of the achievements and oversee the management of global programs and projects and implementation at regional level. Support other sections to translate global ISDR system and relevant international agendas into the regional strategies and plans including national platforms for disaster risk reduction and national Hyogo Framework for Action (HFA) focal points, ensuring that regional specifics are appropriately reflected and integrated.
