

ACADEMIC CONFERENCE ON RESEARCH, TEACHING AND SERVICE IN DISASTER RISK REDUCTION AND RESILIENCE

This event aims to improve knowledge exchange and collaborations in Disaster Risk Reduction and Resilience. It is open both to academics and practices. A common working agenda will be derived from discussion.

First session: research and network-building

- 09:00-09:10 Prof. Peter Sammonds, Welcome by UCL-IRDR Director
09:10-09:20 Mr Roger Gomm, Welcome from ICPEM
09:20-09:50 Keynote speech: Prof. Fausto Marincioni, Polytechnic University of Marche, "Network-building challenges in academic research in DRR/resilience"
09:50-10:10 Prof. David Alexander, Orientation for the discussion of research and network-building
10:10-10:30 Preliminary audience discussion
10:30-11:00 Coffee break and networking (North Cloisters)
11:00-12:30 Research and network-building (continued)
Recorded discussion of issues and formulation of a concrete programme of action (part 1)
12:30-13:30 Lunch break (nearby lunch-stops)

Second session: teaching and service

- 13:30-13:45 Prof. David Alexander, Orientation
13:45-14:15 Keynote speech Mr Richard Gordon, Director, Bournemouth University Disaster Management Centre, "Network-building challenges in academic teaching and service in DRR/resilience"
14:15-15:30 Teaching and service: Recorded discussion of issues and formulation of a concrete programme of action
15:30-16:00 Coffee break and networking

Full documentation about the conference is available online at the following link:
<https://www.ucl.ac.uk/rdr/events-newspublication/second-academicconference>

