

‘Griffith University in partnership with UNISDR’

DRR Training for UNHAS Academic Staff and Students UNHAS, Makassar, South Sulawesi, Republic of Indonesia

Environmental Health and Disaster Management: Disaster Risk Reduction

When: Friday 2 September 2016

Times: 10.00am to 4.30pm Location: At ‘G’ Tower, UNISDR ONEA-GETI, Incheon

Program Design and Presenters: UNISDR and Griffiths School of Environment

Sarah Wade-Apicella, Programme Officer

UNISDR ONEA-GETI

wade-apicella@un.org

Mobile +82 (0)10 5036 4738

Peter Davey PhD,

Director Centre of Excellence for Sustainable Development for Indonesia (CESDI) and Senior Lecturer in Environmental Protection

Griffith’s School of Environment, Griffith University, Nathan campus, Brisbane, Australia
Peter.Davey@griffith.edu.au www.griffith.edu.au Mobile: +61(7) 4088876751

Training Schedule

10.00am Welcome and Introduction to UNISDR ONEA-GETI and Griffith University

10.30am UNISDR DRR Essentials - Climate Change and Housing - Sarah Wade-Apicella

12.00noon Resilient City Action Plan Board Exercise - Sarah Wade-Apicella and Peter Davey

12.30pm Global and Local Partnerships for Communicable Diseases and Rapid EH Assessment Tool - Group Exercise- Peter Davey

1.00pm to 2.00pm Lunch and Prayer

2.00pm DRR: The Potential of Disasters and Organisation of Disasters in Indonesia – Examples Environmental Health and Disaster Management - environmental health response in natural disasters - water, food safety, vector control and waste - Peter Davey

3.30pm Fire Emergency Workshop Scenario – Contingency Planning – Peter Davey

4.30pm Awards Close

Thank you for attending