AGENDA

Implementing the Making Cities Resilient campaign in the Republic of Korea

Gangwon Provincial Office, Republic of Korea, 10 April 2017

14:00-18:00

Aim

This workshop aims to build the capacity and understanding of Gangwon Provincial Public officials’ about the Making Cities Resilient global campaign, its ‘Ten Essentials for Resilient Cities’, the sign-up process and best practices towards becoming a role model city. It further aims to capture good practice and enhance disaster risk sensitive planning in the city.

Intended Outcomes:

- Improved understanding of disaster risk reduction, the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction, and the role of local authorities in its implementation
- Public officials’ understand the Making Cities Resilient (MCR) campaign sign-up process, the ‘Ten Essentials for Resilient Cities’ and best practices towards becoming a role model city

Background

Gangwon Province is the home of Taebaek Mountain Range, which contains the highest mountains in South Korea. Over half of the provincial territory is located between 500 meters and 1000 meters above sea level. Pyeongchang, home of the 2018 Winter Olympics is located in Gangwon Province as well. In the summers and the autums, Gangwon Province is prone to landslides and floods. In the winters, heavy snowfall paralyzes transportation within the province. To overcome these natural disasters, Gangwon Province’s sixteen local governments have joined the UNISDR “Making Cities Resilient” global campaign to build up resilience.

About the Making Cities Resilient (MCR) Campaign in the Republic of Korea

The Making Cities Resilient (MCR) campaign offers guidance, tools and a community of local authorities and other relevant stakeholders to help support implementation of the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction 2015-2030, the UN Member States adopted global blueprint for reducing disaster risk and increasing resilience, at the local level.
