

Webinar

14th March 2018, 12:00pm GMT

ASSAR invites you to attend our webinar titled:
Challenging assumptions about gender and climate adaptation:
It's not always what, or who, you think

This webinar will be happening in conjunction with the 62nd session on the Commission on the Status of Women, which focuses on gender and the empowerment of rural women and girls.

Introduced by Daniel Morchain from Oxfam GB, we will discuss:

Gender as just one factor determining vulnerability

Margaret Angula, University of Namibia

Women's agency and livelihood diversification

Prathigna Poonacha, Indian Institute of Human Settlements

Changes to households and the relationships within them

Nitya Rao, University of East Anglia

People's changing aspirations

Chandni Singh, Indian Institute of Human Settlements

The gendered challenges of food security

Amadou Sidibe, ICRISAT

Register here:

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/2530668237510920193>

