CHILDREN & YOUTH ACTIVITIES
GPDRR 2019 - PART 1

12 May
CHILDREN AND YOUTH FORUM
The preparatory children and youth forum of the GPDRR will take place all day the 12th of May at the SDG Innovation Hub in Geneva.

09:30 - 18:00, SDG Solution Space, Avenue de Sécheron 15, 1202 Genève

13 May
WIA CONSULTATION
A Words Into Action guideline on how to implement the Sendai Framework for and with children and youth is under development. Share your experience!

11:30 - 12:30, UNDRR, 9-11 Rue de Varembé, Room Lausanne

YOUTH MEETING THE SRSG FOR DRR
The youth participants can meet with Mami Mizutori, the Special Representative of the UN Secretary General for DRR, and head of UNDRR.

15 May
SIDE EVENT - BUILDING RESILIENCE IN FRAGILE SETTINGS
The children and youth constituency to the GPDRR has been leading on the development of a side event as part of the formal GPDRR agenda. Attend! Share your support! Ask questions!

13:00 - 14:30, CICG, Rue de Varembé 17, Room 7 & 8

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT GPDRR.COCHAIRS@UNMGCY.ORG
A real world case study is presented. The participants work in teams to present a realistic solution which mitigates the effect of the hazards. It is an interprofessional and intergenerational session.

Participate in a townhall together with the UN SG Envoy on Youth. The topic strengthening collaboration on DRR as part of the implementation of the UN Youth Strategy 2030.

The Young Scientists Platform on DRR was created in 2016 during the UNDRR Science and Technology Conference. It gathers young scientists on DRR around the world, both individuals as well as representatives from institutions. This meeting aim to discuss next step of the Young Scientists Roadmap on DRR.

Young people speak in the GPDRR session on Health, Global Assessment Report & Woman Leadership. There is also a formal children an youth statement delivered. Attend the sessions and support them.

For more information contact: gpdrrip2019@gmail.com