Sixty-fifth session
Agenda item 20 (h)

Resolution adopted by the General Assembly

[on the report of the Second Committee (A/65/436/Add.8)]

65/163. United Nations Decade of Education for Sustainable Development (2005–2014)

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 59/237 of 22 December 2004 and all relevant previous resolutions on the United Nations Decade of Education for Sustainable Development,

Acknowledging the importance of education for achieving sustainable development, including in the context of the Millennium Development Goals, Agenda 21,¹ the Plan of Implementation of the World Summit on Sustainable Development (“Johannesburg Plan of Implementation”),² the upcoming United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development and the Education for All initiative,

Recognizing the importance of promoting a holistic approach towards education for sustainable development and the need to reinforce the interdisciplinary linkages of the three pillars of sustainable development, including different branches of knowledge,

Recognizing also the role of education for sustainable development in promoting the eradication of poverty and more sustainable patterns of consumption and production, particularly in the context of the nineteenth session of the Commission on Sustainable Development, to be held in New York in May 2011,

1. Takes note of the report of the Director-General of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization on the mid-Decade review of the United Nations Decade of Education for Sustainable Development, 2005-2014,³ including the areas identified for further action in the remaining half of the Decade;

¹ Report of the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development, Rio de Janeiro, 3–14 June 1992, vol. I, Resolutions Adopted by the Conference (United Nations publication, Sales No. E.93.I.8 and corrigendum), resolution 1, annex II.

² Report of the World Summit on Sustainable Development, Johannesburg, South Africa, 26 August–4 September 2002 (United Nations publication, Sales No. E.03.II.A.1 and corrigendum), chap. I, resolution 2, annex.

³ See A/65/279.

2. Also takes note of the Bonn Declaration of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization World Conference on Education for Sustainable Development, held from 31 March to 2 April 2009,⁴ including the areas identified for further action in the remaining half of the Decade;

3. Recognizes that, while progress has been made in raising awareness of the significance of education for sustainable development, such progress remains unevenly distributed;

4. Encourages the international community to reinforce its collective commitment to raise awareness of the significance of education for sustainable development, including by mobilizing resources, supporting national efforts and establishing processes that will continue beyond the end of the Decade;

5. Encourages Governments to continue implementing the Decade at the international, national and local levels, including by working with all relevant stakeholders, particularly education systems at all levels, introducing, as appropriate, the concept of sustainable development into curricula and cooperating in order to conserve, protect and restore the health and integrity of the Earth's ecosystem;

6. Invites Governments to continue to promote public awareness of and wider participation in the Decade, inter alia, through cooperation with and initiatives engaging civil society and other relevant stakeholders;

7. Requests the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, as the designated lead agency, to continue its coordination role in promoting the Decade, in cooperation with other relevant United Nations organizations, funds and programmes;

8. Notes that the End-of-Decade World Conference on Education for Sustainable Development will be hosted jointly by the Government of Japan and the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization in 2014;

9. Requests the Secretary-General to invite the Director-General of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization to prepare, in cooperation with other relevant United Nations organizations, funds and programmes, a review of the implementation of the Decade for submission to the General Assembly at its seventieth session, under the sub-item entitled "United Nations Decade of Education for Sustainable Development".

*69th plenary meeting
20 December 2010*
